MEMORANDUM

POLICE
CITY OF PHILADELPHIA
DATE: 06-20-19

TO : Police Commissioner
FROM : Commanding Officer, Internal Affairs Division
SUBJECT : INTERNAL INVESTIGATION- IAD CASE # 19-1077.81

ALLEGATION

On Tuesday, 06-04-19, a confidential Internal Investigation was created as a result of information reported on www.theplainviewproject.org and www.injusticewatch.org websites, in reference to social media posts made by current and former members of the Philadelphia Police Department. IAD #19-1077.81 was issued.

A check of the department database indicated that:

P/O Kristine Amato #6900, Payroll # [REDACTED]th District, was appointed to the Philadelphia Police Department on 01-08-90, and assigned to the 9th District on 06-09-14.

On 06-10-19, Sgt. Gregory Morace #322, Internal Affairs Division, was assigned this investigation.

INVESTIGATIVE ANALYSIS

Upon review of the posts and/or comments provided in the Plain View Project database, it was alleged that P/O Amato was using a Facebook account with the user name of "Yo Stuff". The Facebook account with the user name "Yo Stuff" contained nineteen (19) total posts/comments that were contained on the website.

P/O Kristine Amato #6900, Payroll # [REDACTED]th District, was interviewed at Internal Affairs Headquarters on 06-13-19 and related the following in summary:

P/O Amato was shown and reviewed a package of thirty three (33) pages containing nineteen (19) posts/comments made under the Facebook user name "Yo Stuff". P/O Amato stated that the Facebook account with user name "Yo Stuff" was her account. P/O Amato stated that she made the nineteen (19) posts/comments that she reviewed.

P/O Amato stated she does not have other Facebook accounts, but has used the user name "Kristine Amato" for this Facebook account in the past. P/O Amato also stated she does not recall making any of the posts/comments while on duty, and has never noticed a Facebook post/comment attributed to her that she did not author. When asked if she has any other social media accounts, P/O Amato stated that she has an Instagram account under the user name "Hammerlicious" but she has not used the account in years.

Departmental records confirm that P/O Amato was previously disciplined for violations of the social media policy on one occasion.

PHL_00000172

JA-508

On 11-07-17, an investigation alleging violations of the social media policy by P/O Amato was initiated under IAD #17-0566. The investigation involved Facebook posts made by P/O Amato on 11-03-17. None of the Facebook posts/comments attributed to P/O Amato on the Plain View Project database were included in this previous investigation, which resulted in P/O Amato receiving a one day suspension and is documented under PBI #18-0068 (01-18-18.)

The Plain View Project database attributed nineteen (19) posts and/or comments to P/O Amato. Of the nineteen (19) posts/comments contained in the database, the assigned determined seventeen (17) of the posts/comments made by P/O Amato occurred before she was disciplined for violations of the social media policy under PBI #18-0068.

Two (2) of the posts/comments contained in the database occurred after P/O Amato was disciplined for violations of the social media policy under PBI #18-0068 (01-18-18.) Those two (2) posts/comments were published on or after 06-06-18. The two (2) posts/comments made by P/O Amato were comments on video from local news reports shared by another individual. The assigned conducted an internet search for the news reports. The first news report was found on www.youtube.com. It was originally posted on 6abc.com on 06-06-18 and references a well know incident that occurred on 05-28-18. The comment made by P/O Amato on this news report is on page one of the documents section. The second news report, found on www.philadelphia.cbslocal.com, was originally posted on 07-03-18. The comment made by P/O Amato on this news report is on page four of the documents section.

Some of the Facebook posts/comments identified by the Plain View Project and attributed to P/O Amato violated the Philadelphia Police Department's Social Media Policy in that they contained posts/comments that expressed discriminating or harassing behavior based on race, color, gender, religion, national origin, age, ancestry, sexual orientation, disability, or gender identity, or other content or communications that would not be acceptable in a City workplace under City or agency policy or practice.

The Facebook posts/comments contained in the Plain View Project database attributed to P/O Amato, screenshots of the Plain View Project database post data page, and screenshots captured from the internet search for the news reports are included in the documents section of this report.

REVIEWED AND APPROVED BY:

Daniel Angelucci
 Captain #4
 Internal Affairs Division

CONCLUSION

During the course of the investigation it was determined that a Departmental Violation - PPD Directive Violation - 6.10 was SUSTAINED against P/O Kristine Amato #6900, Payroll # [REDACTED]

P/O Amato stated the Facebook account listed under "Yo Stuff" is her Facebook account. P/O Amato added that she made the Facebook comments and/or posts, however, she did not recall whether she was on or off-duty when they were made. P/O Amato's posts/comments violated Directive 6.10.

Philadelphia Police Department Directive 6.10 states "It is the policy of the Philadelphia Police Department that all existing laws, rules, regulations, and directives that govern on- and off-duty conduct are applicable to conduct associated with social media and networking." It further states, "Employees are prohibited from using ethnic slurs, profanity, personal insults; material that is harassing, defamatory, fraudulent, or discriminatory, or other content or communications that would not be acceptable in a City workplace under City or agency policy or practice."

During the course of the investigation, it was SUSTAINED that P/O Kristine Amato #6900, Payroll # [REDACTED] engaged in a Course of Conduct that indicates she has little or no regard for her responsibility as a member of the Philadelphia Police Department.

P/O Amato has previously been disciplined for violating the social media policy. Though P/O Amato was previously disciplined and counseled in regard to her behavior on social media, she consciously chose to continue to engage in this course of conduct.

A copy of this investigation will be forwarded to the Commanding Officer, Police Board of Inquiry, for action.

Mark, there are other ways, with ur way, some honest, lawabiding, hatdworking person would have to clean the wood chipper. How bout we just drop them all in big vats of acid, they completely dissolve. Every once in a while u filter the acid, and re use it, its even Eco-friendly.....

7y

Then one of them get shot by someone who is not taking this crap then mom is on tv crying my boy was a good boy waaaaaaaaaaaaa waaaaaaaaa give me a f'in break parents where r u. Why dont u know where your kids lock the parents up too!!!!

7y

Tom Grieco Exactly, Lorna.....I got robbed during an undercover operation by two kids who turned out to not bet drug dealers but saw an opportunity so they punched me, took my money and threw me on the ground. I chased them and caught up to the first one who pretended he had a gun so I pulled mine but instead of shooting him I punched him.....now I'm being sued for breaking his nose. Gotta love this country.

7y

Tom Grieco BTW...I retired 5 years ago...this happened 7+ years ago and still being sued.

7y

Wow something is wrong with this generation i feel for u tom, thats some bull. Why r these kids so voilent how would they feel if someone beat the crap put of their parents or grandparents would they b laughing then!!

7y

7y

Guess what, they will all get a slap in the wrist.

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

CHRISTIAN FENICO, et al.

Plaintiffs,

v.

CITY OF PHILADELPHIA,

Defendant.

CIVIL ACTION

NO. 2:20-cv-03336-GEKP

DEFENDANT CITY OF PHILADELPHIA’S OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES TO PLAINTIFF KRISTINE AMATO’S INTERROGATORIES

Defendant City of Philadelphia (the “City”) objects and responds to Plaintiff Kristine Amato’s Interrogatories as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

The City has not yet completed its investigation of the facts relating to this action and has not yet completed its preparation for trial. The City reserves its right to supplement these responses pursuant to the applicable Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Local Rules.

The City objects to Plaintiffs’ definitions and instructions to the extent that they seek to impose requirements exceeding those in the applicable Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Local Rules.

Plaintiffs have served twelve (12) sets of interrogatories, each comprised of twenty (20) separate questions, for a total of 240 interrogatories. Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides that “a party may serve on any other party no more than 25 written

Action. The City further objects to this interrogatory as over broad, unduly burdensome and oppressive because it is unlimited as to time.

ANSWER: Subject to the foregoing objections, see the July 2014 Disciplinary Code, which is part of the collective bargaining agreement between the City of Philadelphia and Fraternal Order of Police Lodge No. 5, in effect between July 1, 2019 through June 30, 2020. See PHL_00009823-00010012.

7. Please identify the individual who made the final decision with regard to the disciplinary action taken against the Plaintiff Amato in this case.

OBJECTIONS: The City understands this interrogatory to be seeking information related to the 2019 Disciplinary Action. The City objects to this interrogatory as vague, confusing, ambiguous, over broad, and unduly burdensome if and to the extent it calls for information relating to any other disciplinary action.

ANSWER: Subject to the foregoing objections, Commissioner Richard Ross made the final decision regarding discipline.

8. Please describe any prior written notice of possible violation of any Department social media policy that was provided to Plaintiff Amato before imposing disciplinary action.

OBJECTIONS: The City objects to this interrogatory because the undefined term “prior written notice” is vague, confusing and ambiguous. The City further objects to this interrogatory as over broad, unduly burdensome, and oppressive to the extent it seeks information relating to notice in connection with possible violations other than those at issue in the 2019 Disciplinary Action. The City further objects to this interrogatory as over broad, unduly burdensome and oppressive because it is unlimited as to time.

ANSWER: Subject to the foregoing objections:

1. Plaintiff Amato was given notice and training on the PPD social media policy in 2011, when it was first issued.
2. Plaintiff Amato was given notice and training on the PPD social media policy in 2012, when it was updated.
3. Plaintiff Amato was given notice and training on the PPD social media policy in 2014.
4. Plaintiff Amato was given notice and disciplined in 2017-2018 for a violation of the PPD social media policy.
5. Plaintiff Amato was given notice and training in June/July 2019 on professionalism and social media.
6. Plaintiff Amato was given notice and disciplined in 2019 for violations of the PPD social media policy.
7. Plaintiff Amato was given notice and disciplined in 2020 for violations of the PPD social media policy.

9. Please identify each individual within PPD who communicated with First Deputy Commissioner Myron Patterson, Sergeant Joann Garvey, Captain John Przepiorka or any other Commanding Officer or employees regarding the allegations that led ultimately to the Plaintiff Amato's discipline.

OBJECTIONS: The City understands this interrogatory to be seeking information related to the 2019 Disciplinary Action. The City objects to this interrogatory as vague, confusing, ambiguous, over broad, and unduly burdensome if and to the extent it calls for information relating to any other disciplinary action. The City also objects to this interrogatory as over broad, unduly burdensome and oppressive to the extent that it seeks to require the City to identify all persons in the Philadelphia Police Department who communicated anyone else in the Philadelphia Police regarding the allegations that resulted in Plaintiff Amato's discipline. The City further objects to

The complaint, submitted by Denise Sessom, 39, B/F, 1707 Green Street., Phila., PA

215-232-9888, alleges that she was physically abused by Officer Gillespie #6900 while being falsely arrested for disorderly conduct on Friday, 10/27/00 at 8:00 pm at 1700 Green

Street. The complainant contends that there was a car blocking the entrance to her parking lot and that while at the corner of [REDACTED], she beeped her horn continuously to get the person to come out and move their car. As people began to emerge from their buildings, Ms. Sessom was calling "911". Before she got a chance to complete the call, Officer Gillespie arrived at the scene and immediately became agitated with Ms. Sessom.

The complainant alleges that she was pushed back into her car until her legs were pinned against the hood, her face was smashed onto her hood at which time she sustained an injury to her lip and her cheek. She was than handcuffed and taken to the 9th district. Shortly thereafter, she was treated at Hahnemann University Hospital. After returning to the district, she signed her citation and was released.

INTERNAL INVESTIGATION / MISSING SERVICE WEAPON

On Monday, July 28, 2014, Captain Kelly of Internal Affairs was contacted by Captain Convery of the 9th District informing him that P/O Kristine Amato #6900, PR#211645 reported that her service weapon was missing from her locker.

P/O Amato stated that she placed her service weapon, a Smith and Wesson model #10 .38 cal., serial #D536248, on the top shelf of her locker after reporting off duty on 7-27-14. P/O Amato stated that when she went to her locker on 7-28-14, she noticed that the Master lock on her locker was not locked and when she opened her locker, her service weapon was missing.

P/O Amato stated that she informed her immediate supervisor, Sgt. DeCarlo #541 as soon as she noticed the weapon missing. P/O Amato went back to her home and conducted a search there as well as her private vehicle and did not find it. As a result, P/O Amato went to the 9th District and formally reported the weapon as missing (DC#14-9-29032).

According to the complainant, on 2-22-16, at 9:30 AM, he was carrying his son in the 1500 block of JFK Boulevard when the child's mother appeared and began assaulting him. One of the blows thrown by the mother struck the child and injured him. When the complainant released the child, his mother took him and ran into the subway; the complainant called 911 to report the incident. Officer Todd responded, told the complainant he looked fine to him and instructed him on how to file for a protection order and get his DC numbers from the district. The complainant obtained a PFA, went to a hospital to receive treatment from the injuries inflicted by the child's mother before returning to the 9th District to have his PFA served on the child's mother, who was there filing a police report with Officer Amato. The City objects to Plaintiffs’ definitions and instructions to the extent that they seek to impose requirements exceeding those in the applicable Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Local Rules.

Plaintiffs have served twelve (12) sets of interrogatories, each comprised of twenty (20) separate questions, for a total of 240 interrogatories. Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides that “a party may serve on any other party no more than 25 written

ANSWER: Subject to the foregoing objections, Plaintiff Amato received notice and training regarding the PPD social media policy at roll call when the policy was first issued in 2011, and when it was updated in 2012. Copies of new and updated PPD directives are sent to each District with instructions to disseminate them to all sworn officers and ensure that they sign the training receipt form. See PHL_00013986-00013994. In addition, supervisors conduct training throughout the year on selected PPD directives at roll call.

Plaintiff Amato also received training on social media in June 2014 and on social media and professionalism in June/July 2019.

20. Please identify or describe each of the Plaintiff's off-duty Facebook posts that violated any PPD policy, directive or order and explain how it violated the policy.

OBJECTIONS: The City understands this interrogatory to be seeking information related to the 2019 Disciplinary Action. The City objects to this interrogatory as vague, confusing, ambiguous, over broad, and unduly burdensome if and to the extent it calls for information relating to any other disciplinary action. The City further objects to this interrogatory to the extent that it assumes that all Plaintiff Amato's social media posts were made while off-duty.

ANSWER: Subject to the foregoing objections, the following social media posts violated the social media policy and interfered with policing:

1. December 1, 2015. PHL_00000190. Racial/Ethnic Bias. Religious Bias.
2. March 24, 2017. PHL_00000191. Promotes Violence.

3. August 24, 2017. PHL_00000193-00000194. Racial/Ethnic Bias. Promotes Violence.
4. Unknown Date. PHL_00000182. Religious Bias.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ David Smith
